| Bio Body Make a "Bio Body" of the main character on a piece of paper. Draw the character. Then, write what your character sees, hears, thinks, smells, tastes and touches in the story. Write these things around your character. Draw arrows to body parts (what he sees points to eyes). | Vocab Sentences Write a sentence for each of the vocabulary words. Make sure to use your own sentences, not the ones from the book!  | Acrostic Poem Write an acrostic poem about the story using one of the character's names. Friend of Toad Really funny Outside home Growing seeds                                  |
| Problem/Solution Foldable: Fold your paper in half. Label one side "problem" and the other "solution." Write what the problem is in the story and draw a quick picture on the problem side. Do the same for the solution side.   | Vocab Sort Write your vocabulary words in ABC order. Next to each word, write it again, showing how many syllables the word has. Ex: character char/ac/ter (3) | Character Letter Write a friendly letter to one of the characters in your book. Tell him or her what you liked about the story. Ask some questions that you may still wonder about. Remember to use proper friendly letter format! |
